

Moving Checklist

8 Weeks Before Moving Day

- Start researching and contacting moving companies for quotes.
- Create a budget for your move, including potential moving expenses.
- Sort through your belongings and decide what to keep, donate, or discard.
- Notify your current landlord (if applicable) about your upcoming move.
- Begin collecting moving supplies such as boxes, tape, and bubble wrap.

6 Weeks Before Moving Day

- Choose a moving company and schedule your moving date.
- Notify your utility providers and update your address for services at your current and future locations.
- Arrange for the transfer of medical, school, and pet records.

4 Weeks Before Moving Day

- Pack non-essential items and label boxes with their contents and destination rooms.
- Inform important contacts (friends, family, employer) about your new address.
- Confirm travel arrangements for pets.

2 Weeks Before Moving Day

- Pack a moving essentials box with items you'll need on moving day (toiletries, clothes, important documents).
- Confirm details with the moving company, including arrival time and contact information.
- Finish packing, labeling boxes clearly.

1 Week Before Moving Day

- Disassemble furniture as needed and ensure everything is packed.
- Confirm the reservation for a moving truck or other transportation.
- Set aside important documents, jewelry, and valuable items to carry with you.
- Confirm key details with the new property manager or real estate agent.

Moving Day

- Double-check each room to ensure nothing is left behind.
- Supervise the loading of your belongings onto the moving truck.
- Confirm the destination address with the moving crew.
- Leave a forwarding address with the post office.

After Moving Day

- Unpack essential items first.
- Begin unpacking and organizing room by room.

- Update your driver's license, vehicle registration, and voter registration with your new address.
- Register your new address with the local school district if you have school-age children.
- Get to know your new neighborhood and locate important services (grocery stores, medical facilities, etc.).
